

Xia WANG

Senior Partner

Patent Attorney

Authorized Patent Litigator

Licensed Intellectual Property Judicial Appraiser

Associate Professor

Ms. Wang graduated from Capital University of Economic and Business in 1993, majoring in Computer Science. She worked for Beijing Investment Counseling Service Center for selecting public companies for fund and information management. She joined China Science Patent & Trademark Agent Limited in 2000.

Ms. Wang was qualified as Patent Attorney in 2000 and qualified as Judicial Authenticator in 2003. In 2010, she was further qualified as Associate Professor.

Ms. Wang headed a department for process management of patents for years. She is in charge of handling inbound/outbound patent prosecution and patent search and consulting on international filing strategy and procedure. She counseled for clients to file and prosecute patent applications in over 50 countries, and having good knowledge in patent internationally-filing practice. She used to be member of the Enterprises Committee of All-China Patent Agents Association. She established and improved the database of the firm to be at good service of clients.

Ms. Wang accomplished Course on IP in Europe, which is organized by the Centre for International Intellectual Property Studies (CEIPI) at the University of Strasbourg in 2009. The course aims at providing an academic overview of the IP-related aspects of the legal system in the European Union, as well as giving concrete ideas about IP prosecution in Europe.

Her technical specialties are Electronic & Computer Science, Semiconductor, Mechanical-electrical Integration, Household Appliances and Internet & E-commercial.

Ms. Wang is proficient in Chinese and English.